

DUFFY-JOHNSON

Many Woburn people journeyed to Somerville, last Sunday afternoon for the five o'clock wedding ceremony, performed in St. Clement's Church by the Rev. Jeremiah Gill, which united in marriage Miss Mary Evelyn Johnson, the daughter of Mrs. James Johnson of 30a Pearson Avenue, Somerville, and Mr. Joseph A. Duffy, the son of Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Thomas H. Duffy of 265 Main Street, Woburn.

It was an attractive early fall ceremony, with a variety of early fall blooms decorating the chancel for the occasion and following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Duffy left on a wedding trip through New York and Canada. Upon their return they will reside at 282 Cross Street, Winchester, Mass.

Miss Johnson chose pure white wedding ring velvet for her gown which was cut en train, and her long sheer tulle veil fell from an all tulle cap to extend the length of her train. She carried lilies of the valley with bride's roses.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret H. Johnson of Somerville, as maid of honor, who was most attractive in a long fitted gown of wine velvet, with matching hat and accessories and she carried a bouquet of Columbia roses.

Mr. Duffy was attended by his brother, Mr. Frank A. Duffy, as best man, and serving as ushers at the church were Mr. Edward Johnson, a brother of the bride, and Mr. John H. Duffy, a brother of the bridegroom.

The bride, who was graduated from Wilmington High School, was employed by the First National Bank of Boston. Mr. Duffy, who is well known here, was graduated from Woburn High School, and is employed by the Consolidated Chemical Company in Woburn.
